KD has been exploring natural and built environments this term.

During our excursion to the city KD thoroughly enjoyed playing in a ‘natural environment’...

The Botanical Gardens.
They have enjoyed learning about the ways in which natural environments are different to built environments. They should be commended for their efforts this term.

They have worked as a team to label environments as natural or built, in the school and on excursions.

KD observed built environments around them and admired the Sydney Harbour Bridge.