Our circle time lessons focused on developing social skills like empathy, trusting others and friendship.

Learning new things about one another

Whole circle games

Creating a stronger connection with everyone in our class

Small group activities

Game of musical statues showing our emotions
As part of National Reconciliation Week 2012, students of 2M wrote messages of praise recognising and acknowledging the sincere efforts of their friends and teachers.