We worked hard all year with mathematics consultants and developed deep understanding of mathematical concepts.

We worked hard in the SAKG preparing the garden so that we may grow lots of delicious vegetables.

We learnt mathematical concepts using lots of different materials, even our bodies.

We worked hard in writing and learnt how to use a thesaurus to help us use more interesting words in our work.