Well done 5/6B! You had lots of fun learning about the Olympic Values. During the classroom, you encouraged each other, respected your friends, tried your knowledge every day, and included all of your classmates in activities.

You have when Olympic sport and in have other, opponents to improve and skills included all in activities.