Working together to solve mathematical problems

Exploring electrical circuits as part of our study of energy and physical phenomena
Exercising and moving our bodies in sensory so we are ready to exercise our minds and learn.

Using computer technology and reading independently are part of our literacy lessons.

Gardening, cooking delicious recipes and eating our culinary creations are part of the Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden project.